Comments from Collectors who have purchased the book

Book arrived safely, well packed and will find a deserving place on my book shelves. May I say I thought the layout was well chosen. I can appreciate the effort that has gone into its production. AR Edinburgh

It looks a genuine labour of love! I'm very grateful for all your hard work in compiling it. Had a chance to look at your book last night when I got home from work. Very impressive! SE Eastbourne

I have had a brief flick through, and you are to be congratulated on an astonishing piece of work. Great reference work and one which I will use regularly. Very happy. SH Kildare

You deserve a medal yourself for the effort it must have taken to compile and for the faith to have it published. I'm sure that it will become a classic on every Metpol medal collectors' shelves. SG Lincs

NAMING OF MEDALS

Detail:
Medals named to Metropolitan Police Officers normally show the following information which is engraved on the rim of the medal in capital letters:

Rank Initial Surname Division
e.g. PS. C. BUDGE L.DIVth

The Division is omitted on 1911 Medals.

Rank:
The following ranks have been noted on medals:
ASST. COMDR. CH. CONST.
SUPT. CH. INSP.
INSP. SUB. INSP.
PS. PC.

On 1887 medals INSP is often shown as INSPth. (CH. INSPth, INSPth, and SUB. INSPth.)

One example has been noted of CH. SUPT. (1887 Medal to Ch. Supt. Dunlop A Div - Warrant No. 31957). This medal / rank is probably unique.

The rank of SPS was not used and there is no distinction between medals to Sergeants and Station Sergeants.

Normally there is no distinction between medals awarded to Inspectors and Sub Divisional Inspectors. However a few examples of the 1911 Medal to SDIs have been noted e.g. SUB. DIV. INSP. R. HILL

This Officer (Warrant No. 79328) worked in the Public Carriage Branch at New Scotland Yard.

One example of an 1897 Medal has been noted with Thames Div PS rank of 3rd Class Inspector: 3rd INSPth. W. HEWITT. THAMES DIVISION

Name:
Normally the name is shown with a single initial although a few medals have been noted with multiple initials:
e.g. 1897 Medal to PC. S.J. LENTON. P. DIVth.

Division:
On most 1887 / 1897 Medals the word Division is engraved as DIVth, with some medals having the N underlined. A few of these medals have been seen with just the word DIV. The word DIV. was used for all 1902 Medals.

CO Division:
It is difficult to establish the exact style used for 1887 Medals to CO Division Officers. Medals for 1897 to CO men normally have no division shown on the medal but 1902 Medals are engraved CO. DIV. An example of the latter is: Warrant No. 84939 P.C. A. SMITH. C.O. DIV.

Thames Division:
1887 Medals show the abbreviation of TA:
e.g. PC. W. COURTMAN. T.A. DIV.
Later medals used the word THAMES as below:
1902 Medal PC H Mth CREE THAMES DIV

Other Divisions:
1887, 1897 and 1902 Medals to other divisions have the single letter designation (A - Y) for their London Divisions and numeric designation (1st - 5th) for the Royal Dockyards.

CID Officers:
Medals have been noted to CID Officers which are named in different styles. Examples are:
1887 Medal to Warrant No. 61621 PC. F. GUMBRIDGE. COMDRS. OFFICE
1897 Medal to Warrant No. 74577 PC - CID - I. BEDFORD. W. DIV.
1902 Medal to Warrant No. 78369 P.C. E. BUCKLEY. CO(CID).

Naming Styles:
1887 Medals are engraved in large sloping capitals. An example of the style is shown:
PS. J. WILLIAMSON. V. DIVth

1897 Medals are engraved in upright capitals. Medals have been noted with both larger and smaller lettering but all have a fairly crude appearance, with some medals including an arrow pattern at each end. Examples are shown:
- P.C. G. HICKS. T. DIVth -
P.C. G. HARRISON. L. DIVth

1902 Medals are engraved in large upright capitals. An example is given below:
P.C. J. LAUDER. A. DIV.

1911 Medals are engraved in filled large upright capitals. An example is shown below:
CH. INSP. T. ROGERS.
